

With bases in Canberra, Queensland and Melbourne, we offer a product supported by maturity and responsibility taking particular care in bringing experienced professionals to our team that ensures relationships have been built at various levels of the corporate spectrum. These relationships are long standing and well respected; with both domestic and international entities varying from the boutique market to large corporations. Having challenged ourselves and the market for almost 10 years as a business, we care about our people, products and service.

We Listen

and learn, act with integrity, respect and consideration in all dealings with both yourself and the candidates. Your requirements are important in successfully moving forward.

We Discuss

with you, your expectations measured against current market trends to support you as an Employer of Choice.

We Develop

with you and agree on a seamless and transparent recruitment and resource process that suits your specific requirements and delivers the resources you require.

We Resource

and prescreen all relevant candidates prior to forwarding their information. We complete all necessary background and qualification checks, provide full case management which includes placement aftercare and welfare checks.

When the hard conversation is needed, or support is required during challenging times, we will always support and provide a solution, considering your timeframes and budget.

Our reputation is based on value for money, integrity and trust.
We provide an extensive and qualified recruitment and resource function, with an aim to build strong teams who deliver excellence in today's market.

Our aim is to become an extension of your team during the recruitment and selection process, assisting in achieving the best possible "fit" between the applicant and your team culture. Combined efforts ensure the position will be filled with the best possible resource available in the market.

"I have been working with Gap Recruitment for a number of years. I find the firm professional, diligent and productive with a very good understanding of the market as well as putting only the right applicants forward to achieve the best outcome. I have enjoyed working with Bronwyn and her team and believe we have built a stellar business relationship that will go on in future years. I highly recommend the team at Gap Recruitment for their network and understanding of my needs and core business".

"I first came to know Bronwyn while she was working for a multinational employment agency in 2006. I was not only impressed with her professionalism, honesty and integrity but also with her knowledge of the construction industry. She found the perfect candidate to fill the position. I have since then engaged her services and I'm glad to say that once again she didn't disappoint. Pacific Formwork has used other employment agencies in the past and none of them have come close to delivering the quality of candidates, service or understanding of the construction industry as Bronwyn. I have no problems recommending Bronwyn and her team at Living Recruitment and GAP Resource Management."

Graciete Ferreira, President

Director, Pacific Formwork

"Excellent, fantastic, very happy...thanks".
